	08-09-2004 Miss Sharmila Singhai with Miss Samta Jain, Advocates for the petitioner. Shri Vinay Harit, Standing Counsel for the respondents. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter relates to compassionate appointment. It is pointed out by Shri Vinay Harit that the petitioner is the second wife of deceased Prakasham, who was in the service of Railways and he died on 10-3-1997. Shri Harit further submitted that first wife has not been joined as a party. Learned counsel for the petitioner at this stage submitted that the petitioner may be allowed to submit a representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising her grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. Certified copy as per rules. Sd/- Fakhruddin Judge Gowri
